The point was difference with in the so-called evidence among & the groups supporting them were so great just in themselves they has asked Re not to plead with. If not before Guatemala meeting at least by them, had Re C/I also pointed understanding at all (during) time gave a callous decision to make a point of view & to solve the LCO in-stead by with out decision by proper fishing - making officials, the whole thing would have been called off at least delayed, with the man transferred elsewhere. It would be very interesting to know more about Bender (German: Drallor) & his background & German political connections He showed a clear preference for Batista, a friend of theirs.
